TORONTO, Ontario – September 12, 2023 – Solo travel gives wayfarers and wanderers carte blanche to go when they want, where they want and indulge in their personal interests along the way. And it’s this freedom to experience the world on their own terms that makes solo travel one of the fastest-growing travel styles today. In fact, according to a recent “Wish List” “survey facilitated by the Globus family of brands, 24 percent (24%) of 10,000 respondents said they’re planning a solo trip in 2024.
