2023 USHERS IN THE RISE OF THE SOLO TRAVELER ...
IN RESPONSE, COSMOS WAIVES THE SINGLE SUPPLEMENT ON TOURS ACROSS THE GLOBE

LITTLETON, Colorado – January 10, 2023 – When we set our adventurous spirit free, we go far. And when you're your own travel squad, you're free to discover destinations at our own pace, on your own agenda. Solo travel gives you carte blanche to go when you want, where you want, indulge in your interests and to get to know yourself in new and exciting ways. And it's this freedom to experience the world on your own terms that makes solo travel one of the fastest-growing travel styles today.

To make traveling solo more accessible than ever, and to foster this unprecedented rise in solo travel, Cosmos – part of the award-winning Globus family of brands – is waiving the single supplement on 15 tours across Europe and North America in 2023.

"We support the incredible journey solo travelers take from the moment they decide to go to the end of their vacation," said Steve Born, chief marketing officer for the Globus family of brands. "By waiving the single supplement on select tours, we're making it easier than ever for solo travelers to say 'yes' to a world of exploration in 2023. Now, more than ever, solo travelers are in great company."

Before the pandemic, approximately 15 percent (15%) of travelers were going solo. Since then, Google searches for solo travel have quadrupled. And, according to a recent survey of Cosmos travelers, 26 percent (26%) of respondents said they're planning to travel solo in the coming year – nearly doubling 2019 travel statistics. And while solo travel comes in every shape and size, Solo Traveler World's recent annual reader survey showed that 9 of 10 solo travelers prefer to "take tours all or some of the time."

"On a tour, those going solo are on their own, but never truly alone," added Born. "Cosmos guests have access to a Tour Director – a local expert who's with them throughout the journey, providing an immersive, storytelling experience – and the promise of comfortable, safe accommodations with transportation, included, as part of the itinerary."
