MARTIN HUDÁK

Born in Prešov, Slovakia, Martin Hudák began his career behind the bar early in life, and discovered a passion for cocktails, coffee—and for combining the two! He eventually moved to London, where he honed his skills at the Savoy Hotel's iconic American Bar as senior bartender. He has repeatedly shaken, stirred, and innovated his way into champion titles at Tales of the Cocktail, World's 50 Best Bars, World Coffee in Good Spirits, and other international competitions, and has traveled to more than 50 countries, educating thousands of coffee and cocktail aficionados on the future of coffee cocktails. Hudák is currently based in Sydney, Australia, where he is CEO/Founder of the hospitality industry's Slovak Bar Show; a Global Coffee Ambassador for Mr. Black Spirits; founder of Spiritual Coffee, the Ginger Mania ginger beer microbrewery, and Sydney's newly opened Maybe Sammy cocktail bar. In 2019, Hudák partnered with Avalon Waterways, part of the Globus family of brands, and has crafted an outstanding collection of signature cocktails served exclusively throughout the Avalon fleet.

CLASSIC

COCKTAILS

Enjoy a familiar favorite whose story is as rich as its flavors.

Martini Dry

€ 9.20

Few drinks are as indebted to Prohibition as the dry gin martini. During that period, gin bootlegging made the spirit easy to get—and the martini a popular choice.

Gordon's Gin 5cl (1.70 oz), Martini Dry 1cl (0.34 oz), Olive

Manhattan Perfect

€ 9.20

One of the oldest cocktails, the Manhattan was invented for a banquet at the posh Manhattan Club in the early 1870s. Afterward, the drink became all the rage, and it remains so today.

Canadian Club 4cl (1.36 oz), Martini Rosso 1cl (0.34 oz), Martini Dry 1cl (0.34 oz), Angostura

Old Fashioned

€ 9.20

The original cocktail, this drink was all the rage in the early 1800s. As it evolved beyond recognition, a backlash broke out and people clamored for "just an old fashioned cocktail."

Jim Beam 4cl (1.36 oz), Angostura, Sugar

Cosmopolitan

€ 9.20

Some say the Cosmo dates back to the early 1900s. Others believe it simply willed itself into existence in the '70s as bartenders simultaneously invented it. Either way, it's so delicious.

Skyy Vodka 5cl (1.70 oz), Cointreau 2cl (0.68 oz), Lime Juice, Cranberry Juice

CLASSIC

COCKTAILS

Enjoy a familiar favorite whose story is as rich as its flavors.

Margarita

€ 9.20

Tequila was rarely served outside Mexico before Prohibition sent cocktail-seekers south of the border. After Repeal, experimentation began, soon hooking the world on sweet, sour, and salty.

Tequila Silver 5cl (1.70 oz), Cointreau 2cl (0.68 oz), Lemon Juice

Sidecar

€ 9.20

Created at the end of WWI, a war rages even today over who invented the Sidecar. Both the French and the British take credit. Either way, drinkers find it a victory of taste.

Asbach Uralt Brandy 4cl (1.36 oz), Cointreau 2cl (0.68 oz), Lemon Juice

Whiskey Sour

€ 9.20

To combat scurvy, a British Vice Admiral served his ship's crew gin or brandy mixed with Lemon or lime Juice. When the Americans used whiskey instead, the Whiskey Sour was born!

Jack Daniels Bourbon 4cl (1.36 oz), Lemon Juice

Kir

€ 7.60

When the Nazis seized Burgundy's red wines during WWII, Felix Kir, a Catholic priest, combined white wine with blackcurrant liqueur to mimic the color of the reds. The popular result became an inspiring symbol of French resistance!

Creme de Cassis 1cl (0.34 oz), White Wine 10cl (3.38 oz)

CLASSIC

COCKTAILS

Enjoy a familiar favorite whose story is as rich as its flavors.

Kir Royale

€ 7.60

The popularity of Felix Kir's cocktail spread throughout France. Once the French upper class discovered it, they used champagne or sparkling wine instead of white wine, creating the Kir Royale!

Crème de Cassis 1cl (0.34 oz), Sparkling Wine 10cl (3.38 oz)

White Lady

€ 9.20

The White Lady was built on travel! In 1919, a London bartender created the crème de menthe cocktail, which he changed to gin in Paris in 1923. Back in London, a dash of egg whites were added, giving the White Lady its ultimate smooth and silky finish.

Gordon's Gin 2cl (0.68 oz), Triple Sec Curaçao 2cl (0.68 oz), Lemon Juice

American

€ 9.20

The first drink ordered by James Bond in Ian Fleming's first 007 spy novel, the Milano-Torino cocktail was introduced in Milan in the 1860s. It was later renamed because of its popularity among American tourists around the turn of the 20th century!

Campari 3cl (1.02 oz), Martini Rosso 3cl (1.02 oz)

Gin Fizz

€ 9.20

Fizz cocktail culture was in full bloom in early 20th-century America—and the Gin Fizz became legendary in New Orleans. Demand was so high, in fact, that bars would employ entire assembly lines of “shaker boys” to keep orders filled while preserving their stamina.

Gordon's Gin 4 cl (1.36 oz), Lemon Juice, Sugar Beet Syrup, Club Soda

Rusty Nail

€ 9.20

If ever a cocktail had an identity crisis, it's the Rusty Nail. Also known as a B.I.F., D&S, MiG-21, and Knucklehead, the combination of Drambuie and whiskey give it the distinctively smoky and sweet taste that enamored the Rat Pack in the 1960s.

Johnnie Walker Red Label 4 cl (1.36 oz), Drambuie 4 cl (1.36 oz)

CLASSIC

COCKTAILS

Enjoy a familiar favorite whose story is as rich as its flavors.

Negroni

€ 9.20

In Florence, Italy, in 1919, Count Negroni asked the bartender to give his favorite drink, the Americano, a little extra kick. His result has become the world's second-most ordered cocktail!

Gordon's Gin 2 cl (0.68 oz), Campari 2cl (0.68 oz), Vermouth Rosso 2cl (0.68 oz)

Midori Martini

€ 9.20

Midori is a sweet muskmelon-flavoured liquor, with a distinctive green colour. It started as Hermes Melon Liqueur in 1964 produced by Japanese distiller Suntroy.

Midori Liqueur 3cl (1.02 oz), Vodka 3cl (1.02 oz), Lemon Juice 3cl (1.02 oz), 1.5cl (0.50 oz) Sugar Syrup to taste

Aperol Spritz

€ 7.80

Though Aperol itself didn't come into being until 1919, the idea of a spritz has been around for much longer. The name appears to trace back to the 1800s in when portions of the Veneto region of northern Italy were controlled by the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

House Sparkling Wine 6cl (2.04 oz), Aperol 4 cl (1.36 oz), Soda Water 2cl (0.68 oz)

Sea-Breeze

€ 9.20

The cocktail was born in the late 1920s, but the recipe was different from the one used today, as gin and grenadine were used in the original Sea Breeze. This was near the end of the Prohibition era.

Vodka 5cl (0.34 oz) Cranberry Juice 10cl (3.38 oz), Grapefruit Juice 5cl (0.34 oz)

Singapore Sling

€ 9.20

The Singapore Sling is a gin-based sling cocktail from Singapore. This long drink was developed sometime before 1915 by bartender Ngiam Tong Boon. Initially called the gin sling, it was originally a North American drink composed of spirit and water, then sweetened and flavored.

Gordon's Gin 3cl (1.02 oz), Cherry Heerings 1.5cl (0.50 oz), Lemon Juice 1.5cl (0.50 oz), Grenadine 1cl (0.34 oz), DOM Benedictine 0.5cl (0.17 oz), Cointreau 0.5cl (0.17 oz), Pineapple Juice 12cl (4.08 oz),

Bloody Mary

€ 9.20

When Russians fled their revolution with vodka, and American Prohibition caused the popularity of tomato Juice, one Paris bartender put 2 and 2 together...and created the Bloody Mary! Tangy tomato Juice, fresh Lemon Juice, and vodka are the blank canvas...you fill in the details!

Skyy Vodka 4cl (1.36 oz), Tomato Juice, Lemon Juice, Worcestershire Sauce, Tabasco

Caipirinha

€ 9.20

Invented around 1918 as a cure for the Spanish Flu, today the Caipirinha is the national drink of Brazil. Freshly cut limes muddled with brown cane sugar, Cachaça, and ice make this sheer Brazilian magic.

Cachaça 5cl (1.70 oz), Lime, Brown Sugar

Mississippi Mule

€ 9.20

While the Moscow Mule was the happy result of housecleaning (a New York bartender's need to clear his cellar of vodka and ginger beer led him to invent the drink), its lesser-known cousin, the Mississippi Mule, is just as tasty and refreshing!

Planter's Punch

€ 9.20

While many claim Planter's Punch originated at the Planter's Hotel in Charleston, its genesis in Jamaica is far more likely, according to the 1878 verse: Take two of sour (lime let it be); To one and a half of sweet; Of Old Jamaica pour three strong; And add four parts of weak.

Myers's Rum 4cl (1.36 oz), Grenadine 1 cl (0.33 oz), Pineapple Juice, Orange Juice

Rollin' on the River

€ 9.20

In the mid-1980s, a liquor distributor offered a $1,000 prize to the bartender who could sell the most peach schnapps. A fruity Florida concoction dubbed "Sex on the Beach" won—and with little wonder due to the mobs of college students flocking there for Spring Break! Here's our Avalon twist on this fun concoction.

Skyy Vodka 4 cl (1.36 oz), Peach Liqueur 2 cl (0.68 oz), Cranberry Juice, Orange Juice

Long Island Iced Tea

€ 10.70

So, who created the Long Island Iced Tea? Long Island, NY, claims it was first crafted there in 1972; Long Island, Tennessee, says a local bootlegger invented it during Prohibition. The truth may never be known... maybe we should just give credit to Long Island, Alaska!

Skyy Vodka 2cl (0.68 oz), Gordon's Gin 2cl (0.68 oz), Meyers's Rum 2cl (0.68 oz), Tequila Silver 2cl (0.68 oz), Triple Sec Curaçao 2cl (0.68 oz), Lemon Juice, Coca-Cola

WINE BY THE GLASS

WHITE WINE

TOSCANA, Italy

Chardonnay—dry (12 % alc) 0.2 l (6.76 oz)

€ 5.30

Viso di Vino

The Viso di Vino Chardonnay is presented in straw yellow colour in a glass. The sense of smell is determined by a versatile fragrance composition of floral and fruity aromas. Uncomplicated fruit-focused with sparkling fruit acid, the Viso di Vino Chardonnay offers a real enjoyment experience.

TOSCANA, Italy

Pinot Grigio—dry (12.5 % alc) 0.2 l (6.76 oz)

€ 5.30

Viso di Vino

Straw yellow is the Viso di Vino Pinot Grigio. The wine combines elegant aromas of fresh citrus fruit with the finest ripe melon to create a sensual interplay!

BURGENLAND, Austria

Grüner Veltliner—dry (12 % alc) 0.2 l (6.76 oz)

€ 5.30

Lentsch

An elegant and dry wine, with an expressive nose of fresh fruits.

WINE BY THE GLASS

RED WINE

PFALZ, Germany

Dornfelder—dry (12.5 % alc) 0.2 l (6.76 oz)

€ 5.30

Wachtenburger Winzer

Aged in wooden barrels, a dark red wine with lightly purple reflexes. Velvety, soft, and highly approachable.

BURGENLAND, Austria

Rotweincuvée—dry (13 % alc) 0.2 l (6.76 oz)

€ 5.30

Lentsch

The Lentsch red wine cuvée sparkles out of the glass in a dark cherry red. The bouquet is made up of ripe blackberries, blueberries, cherries and wild herbs. An Austrian red which is very juicy and exudes a lot of charm.

VENETIA, Italy

Cabernet Sauvignon—dry (12.5 % alc) 0.2 l (6.76 oz)

€ 5.30

Viso di Vino

The Viso di Vino Cabernet Sauvignon impresses with a cherry-red colour and violet reflections. Its fragrance is reminiscent of fresh nuances of ripe forest berries paired with sweet blackberries and juicy raspberries. The soft tannins inspire with every glass.

WINE BY THE GLASS

ROSÉ WINE

RHEINHESSEN, Germany

Rosé Spaetburgunder (12 % alc) 0.2 l

€ 5.30

Moselland

Refreshing and fruity rosé specialty made of selected, high-quality wines. It has a tangy and refreshing taste.

PFALZ, Germany

Rosé Blaufränkisch (11.5 % alc) 0.2 l (6.76 oz)

€ 5.30

Lentsch

An enjoyable wine, with a natural sweetness on the palate. Its raspberry and strawberry nose is very fruity and fresh, with a combination of raspberries, strawberries and some fresh redcurrants dominating the bouquet. The refreshing fruit acidity creates a pleasant drinking flow, which is predominated by the red berries.
